

A HOME TOWN PAPER FOR HOME TOWN PEOPLE

VOL. XXVII

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1920.

NO. 44

CELEBRATION TO BE GREATEST OF ALL

PLANS FAST MATURING THAT ASSURE COUNTY'S GREATEST CELEBRATION TO BE HELD IN SOUTH S. F. NOVEMBER 11TH.

There is now every indication that the celebration to be held in South San Francisco November 11th, when Bernard McCaffery Post of the American Legion will keep the anniversary of Armistice Day and the city will dedicate its magnificent new city hall, will surpass anything San Mateo county has seen since this city staged the welcome home to its war heroes about one year ago. At the meeting of the committees on preparation held at the city hall Thursday night, plans were formulated, the scope of which indicates clearly that this is to be an occasion long to be remembered throughout the county. The members of Bernard McCaffery Post will hold the official county celebration of the anniversary of the signing of peace of the greatest war in the world's history, while all residents of the city feel that as South San Francisco now has one of the finest city halls of any city of its size in the entire United States, the formal opening of that hall should be made the occasion for a dedication in keeping with the beauty of the building.

All committees were represented at the meeting. The committee on printing and advertising reported that its printing of posters, etc., was practically finished, while its plan for advertising in the different county newspapers next week was complete. Within the next day or two big posters announcing the celebration will be distributed over the entire county.

The monster parade of ex-service men, fraternal organizations, floats, decorated autos, etc., will form at the grammar school on Grand avenue at 10 o'clock. It will march east on Grand avenue to Cypress avenue, then counter-march to the city hall, where the dedication exercises will be held. Arthur M. Free will be the orator of the day. The different committees will meet again for a final report at the city hall next Wednesday night.

Following is the program so far as completed:

Parade at 10:30.
10:45 to 11. Memorial to the men who died "over there" by the American Legion.
Invocation.
Selection by band.
Salute to the flag by the school children.
Song by children, accompanied by band.
Dedication by Arthur M. Free.
Vocal solo, Roscoe Corley.
Address for Boy Scouts by Rev. D. Stevens.
Selection by band.
Benediction.
Barbecue from 12 to 1.
Football game at high school. San Mateo high school vs. South San Francisco high.
Dance from 2 to 6 and from 8 to midnight.
There will also be band concerts during the afternoon and evening.

W. J. SMITH BUYS BIG HOTEL IN SAN FRANCISCO

W. J. Smith, genial justice of the peace and known to every man, woman and child in South San Francisco through many years of residence in this city, has purchased the Antlers Hotel at 245 Powell street, San Francisco. This is a first-class hotel of 114 rooms and caters to the best of trade. Mr. Smith and family will continue to make South San Francisco their residence, at least during Judge Smith's term of office here.

SUNDAY FAIR AT PARISH HALL PROVES SUCCESSFUL

The fair given at Parish Hall, All Souls' Church, Sunday by Council 37, R. A. B. A. M., was a pronounced success. Nearly $200 was cleared over expenses. Many lodge members and their friends attended the affair.

STAGE ALL SET FOR BIG POLITICAL FIGHT

Voters to Cast Ballots Tuesday for President, Lawmakers, Judges and Amendments.

Though the political campaign now drawing to a close has been designated by those who have followed like campaign for many years as very quiet compared with many which have preceded it, the last few weeks has seen interest heightening and the windup has reminded old-timers of "the good old times when politics was politics."

Much interest has attached to the amendments that will appear upon the ballot, and determined fights are being made by the proponents and opponents of the different measures.

Aside from the amendments chief interest is felt, naturally, in the election of the president, vice-president, and United States senator. Great publicity has been given to the fight between the two great parties over the "highest office in the gift of the people." An interesting sidelight on the contest for the presidency is that however the election goes the next president will be a former newspaper editor, as both Mr. Harding and Mr. Cox are owners and editors of newspapers in Ohio. The winner of the contest will be the first editor who ever sat in the president's chair.

Scarcely less hot has been the contest over the office of senator. The incumbent, Senator Phelan, and his friends have made a determined fight for Phelan's re-election, while Samuel Shortridge, the popular San Francisco attorney, and his supporters have waged a no less determined battle to convey the toga to Mr. Shortridge's shoulders.

Arthur M. Free, the attorney from Santa Clara county, who aspires to the office of congressman, has been campaigning strenuously throughout the district and has a host of friends and supporters who are confidently predicting his election. Mr. Free is a former district attorney of Santa Clara county and a man, his friends declare, fully competent to render a good account of himself in congress. The supporters of Hugh Hersman, present congressman, are also putting in hard work for their favorite and the ballots for the two promise to be pretty evenly divided.

For state senator and assemblyman, the incumbents, M. B. Johnson and Frank Ekward, have no opposition.

The candidates for five judicial offices, Warren Olney, W. A. Sloane, William Waste, William Langdon, and George H. Buck, the latter present judge of the superior court of this county, also have no opponents. Neither has Thomas L. Hickey, candidate for supervisor of the first township of San Mateo county.

Of the candidates for judge of the appellate court, though three names appear on the ballot, Judge Brittain has retired, which assures the election of the remaining two.

In today's issue of The Enterprise on page six will be found a duplicate of the ballot so far as the twenty amendments are concerned and the advice of the editor of this newspaper on how to vote on each. Read these over carefully. Not everybody, naturally, thinks the same on how each of these should be voted, but after careful study we have given conscientious advice on each. Clip the article from the paper in full, take it to the polls and cast your ballot similarly marked.

The fight is on. May the best men and the best measures win!

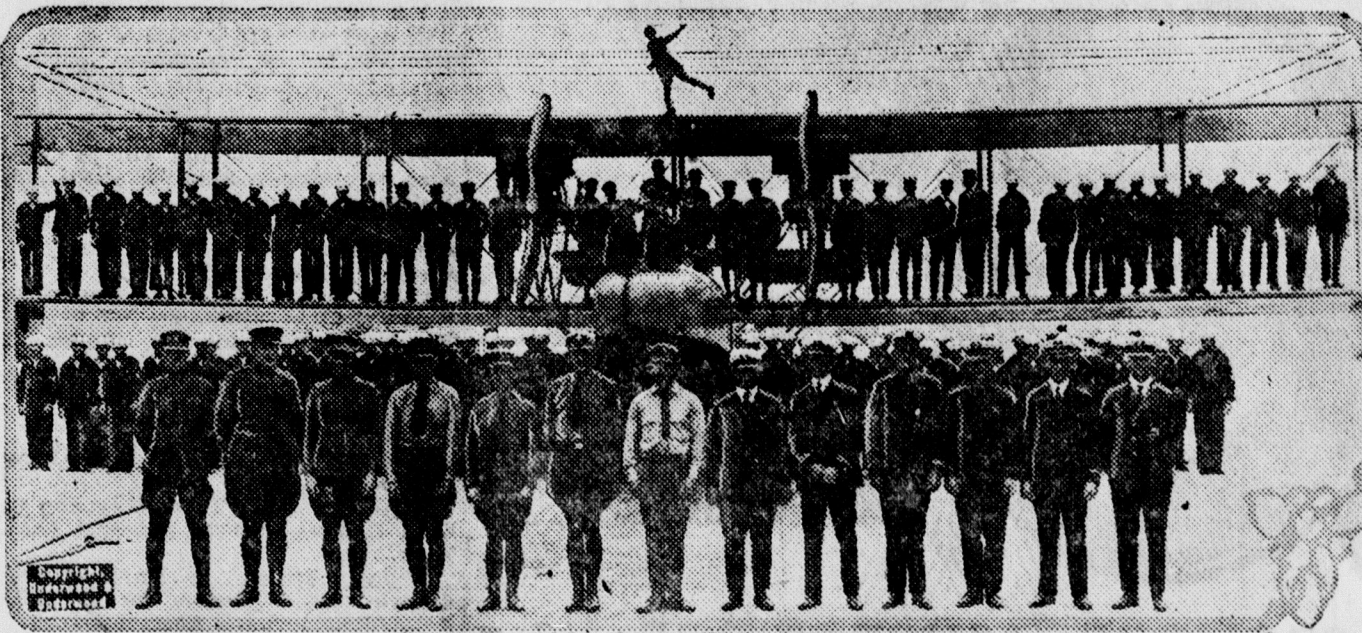

S. NIKOLAS TO BE BURIED AT NATIONAL CEMETERY

S. Nikolas of this city, who died of meningitis Thursday, was a veteran of the late war and a member of the local post of the American Legion. He will be buried in the national cemetery at the Presidio Saturday afternoon, leaving the parlors of S. Neri Saturday morning.

CONGRESSMAN HERSMAN PAYS VISIT TO TOWN

Congressman Hugh Hersman was in town Wednesday shaking hands and campaigning. Mr. Hersman was being shown around and introduced by James Casey of Colma.

DR. HICKOK TO STAND TRIAL ON NOV. 22

Dr. Allen Reinhart, Woman Associate, to Appear One Week Later.

Dr. Galen R. Hickok and Dr. Allen Reinhart, a woman physician, charged with performing an illegal operation on Mrs. Bertha Castell, San Francisco, at the "mystery castle" at Salada Beach several months ago, will have their trials on November 22d and 29th, respectively. Mrs. Cleo Tevis, a nurse, who the officers claim assisted at the operation and cared for the patients at the Salada Beach sanitarium, was granted a continuance.

All three defendants were in the superior court in Redwood City Saturday morning. Dr. Reinhart was represented by her brother, Attorney J. B. Reinhart of Los Angeles. Dr. Hickok's attorney is Kenneth M. Green of San Francisco, formerly of San Mateo.

LICENSED IN REDWOOD.

James Mathios, 36, of San Francisco, and Stavroula Stamatiopolou, 30, of South San Francisco.

Robert A. Cook, 34, of Winters, Calif., and Elsie Hall, 32, of South San Francisco.

GROCERY CHANGES HANDS.

George Hawkins, the real estate agent of this city and San Bruno, together with J. Coughlin, has purchased the grocery conducted in South San Francisco by Canavesio & Borello at 365 Grand avenue. The new owners expect to run their new store on the "cash and carry" plan. Mr. Hawkins was formerly in the grocery business at Long Beach.

LOUIS CRESCI INJURED AT STEEL MILL WEDNESDAY

Louis Cresci of 511 Commercial avenue, South San Francisco, was severely injured and burned Wednesday when a large, hot angle iron fell upon him. One of Cresci's jaws was fractured and he sustained severe bruises and burns about the head and face. He is now at the local hospital, where he underwent a successful operation on his jaw Thursday.

NOTABLE ADDITION MADE TO STAFF OF LOCAL HOSPITAL

A notable addition has been made to the staff of the South San Francisco Hospital in the person of Dr. E. H. Falconer, one of the most able of San Francisco's younger doctors. Dr. Falconer is a graduate of McGill University and is at present one of the instructors at the University of California medical school and chief of the medical clinic at the university hospital. He was formerly resident physician at the university. Dr. F. S. Dolley considers himself exceedingly fortunate to have secured the services of a physician of Dr. Falconer's standing for the local hospital. Dr. Falconer will have charge of the medical cases coming to the hospital. Under an agreement recently made between Dr. Dolley and the Pacific Coast Steel Company and the Western Meat Company, the employees now under the medical protection of these two plants will secure the benefit of Dr. Falconer's experience without extra charge to themselves.

COMMISSION PERMITS R. R. ABANDONMENT

Order Issued by State Body Permits
Ocean Shore to Cease Service.

The Ocean Shore Railroad, as a public utility, is no more, the Railroad Commission having issued an order permitting the company to abandon service on its southern division. A similar order regarding the northern division was issued a short time ago. The southern division is that part of the Ocean Shore road running from the city of Santa Cruz northerly along the ocean shore to Swanton, a distance of nearly sixteen miles. The northern division extended from San Francisco to Tunitas in San Mateo county. As in the case of the northern division, insufficient revenue was responsible for the passing of the southern division.

The order of the commission authorized the company to dismantle the line.

BELT R. R. APPLICATION NOW UNDER ADVISEMENT

The application of the South San Francisco Belt Railway for authority to increase charges for the switching service it gives to the industries at South San Francisco, San Mateo county, was heard Tuesday by Railroad Commissioner H. D. Loveland and taken under advisement. The company is now charging $2.50 a car. It wants to charge $3.50 a car. According to the evidence given by F. J. Colter, vice-president and traffic manager of the company, its operating deficit in 1919 was $25,784.16. From January 1, 1920, to April 30, he said, the company's operating expenses exceeded its revenues by $7946.74.

Mrs. A. P. Scott and sister, Mrs. J. G. French, of Santa Clara spent the first few days of the week visiting their sister, Mrs. P. A. Cheal, at Morgan Hill.

SO S. F. MAN ARRESTED IN PITTSBURG AS BANDIT

A news item that appeared in a San Francisco morning paper Wednesday morning contains the information that Al Maderas, a young man well known in South San Francisco is under arrest in Pittsburg, Calif., charged with robbery. Maderas was formerly an employee at the local steel mill. He was known as an amateur pugilist and a baseball player of considerable ability. Here is the dispatch referred to:

Pittsburg, Oct. 26.—Caught in their rooms on information furnished by a woman friend, three Pittsburg men were arrested today as the bandits who early Sunday morning held up and robbed a poker party in the Columbia billiard and pool hall, securing money and jewelry supposedly valued at $2000.

The alleged bandits were arrested by Police Chief Williamson and Constable McDermott of Pittsburg. They are Albert Maderas, Andrew Davey, alias Harry Smith, and Ed Cameron. Although the men were heavily armed, they offered no resistance.

They finally broke down and confessed the robbery, according to Veale, but insisted that the loot comprised only $180 in cash and a single diamond ring.

COMM. CHAMBER TO HELP HOUSE BUILDING

Discusses Shortage of Houses and Names Committee to Urge Home
Building on Lot Owners.

The shortage of houses in South San Francisco came up for discussion at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at the city hall. The matter was brought up by Andrew Hynding, who stated that many more factory workers would make their homes in this city if housing accommodations could be found. It was the consensus of opinion of the members gathered at the meeting that the growth of this city is being materially held back, even perhaps permanently crippled by the lack of houses here. Many complaints are being made, according to those who spoke, not only by the factory workers themselves but by the officials of the factories, because they cannot get local accommodations for men with families. A committee was appointed to interview property owners in town and also those living in other towns who hold property here, in an attempt to get them to build houses in this city. F. A. Cunningham, B. H. Truax, and E. C. Peck were placed on this committee.

It was pointed out that there seems every indication that building material will go but little if any lower than at present, also that at the present price of material a house would be a paying investment, because it was sure to rent quickly and to draw a good rental.

By special arrangement between the Chamber of Commerce and the Western Union Telegraph Company, election returns will be shown in South San Francisco the night of the election. These returns will be as full and comprehensive as those shown in San Francisco, so there will be no necessity for anybody going into town to watch returns. The telegraph company states that it will have its new office in this city open for business within a few days.

LIND BACK FROM QUINCY.

Peter Lind and children returned Saturday night from Quincy, Calif., where they have spent the last three months. Mr. Lind reports that because of heavy snow he found it very difficult getting over the mountain. According to Mr. Lind the spring will see considerable production work at the mine of the Australian Placer Mining Company, in which several local persons are financially interested. Fan Moon, a Chinese and native of Quincy, returned with Mr. Lind to work in the latter's market here.

PHELAN MEETING IN TOWN NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

South San Francisco and its environs will have an opportunity next Monday night to listen to a message from Senator Phelan. The meeting will be held at Fraternal Hall and arrangements have been made for a speaker who will address the Italian voters of this region in their native tongue. The speaker will be Sylvester Andriano, an Italian attorney of San Francisco. It is expected there will be a considerable gathering of Italian voters and others at the meeting.

WINE MAKING IS NOW DECLARED ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON BRANDS STORY
WINE MAKING TO EXTENT 200
GALS. IS FALSE AND ALL MAK-ING INTOXICANTS LIABLE.

Ten days ago Collector Wardell announced that wine to the amount of 200 gallons could be made in the home free of tax and free of danger of prosecution under the federal dry law.

But now comes an official announcement from Washington that there is no truth in the reported change of heart of the federal prohibition commissioner and that Italians or anyone else who make wine at home are going to be prosecuted now as of yore.

Collector Wardell was not authorized to give out the report that wine could be made at home, because it can't be done, legally. Wardell's superior officer telegraphed to local authorities. All of which makes the following "credit" lines in local Italian papers seem ridiculous. The papers themselves could not be blamed, but the source of their news can be. In other words, when they were told that wine could be made at home they were told that Senator Phelan was the man who made it possible.

Here is what L'Italia of San Francisco said in its issue of October 10th:

"This concession, according to information received by us, was made as the result of the insistent requests of Senator James D. Phelan, who has ever understood what a great hardship it is for certain individuals and for certain families to renounce the use of such beverage that cannot properly be classed as alcoholic and what losses it would cause to the grape growers if they are not able to use all their grapes, as some of them cannot be made use of for the table."

"No Italian will fail to feel grateful to Senator James D. Phelan for having obtained this very favorable and so highly desired concession that permits the manufacturing of the favorite beverage of us Italians. As is well known, Senator Phelan is a candidate to the office of senator of the state of California at the elections of November 2d next."

Following is a telegram from Commissioner of Internal Revenue William M. Williams, scotching the Phelan coup in San Francisco:

"It may be inferred that revenue officials have stated that wines with alcoholic content as high as 14 per cent will be legal. Such construction of prohibition mimeograph 84 in connection with my telegram of October 7th to Mr. Wardell, showing application of internal revenue tax laws to said prohibition mimeograph, is erroneous."

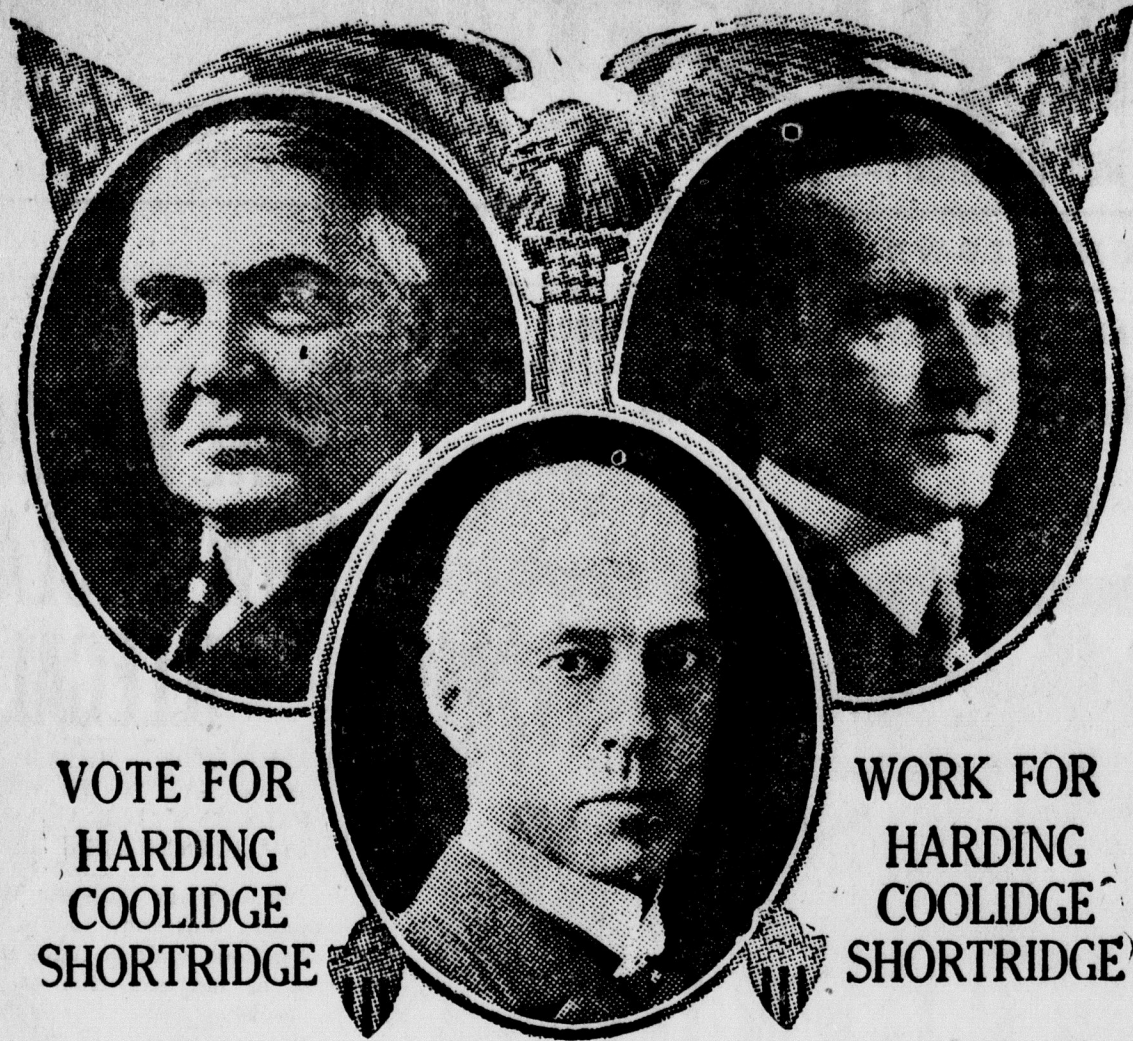

"Under the bureau's construction of the law any and all persons who produce fruit juice or cider for home use, which said juices or cider are intoxicating in fact, will be promptly prosecuted under the law, and in addition all double taxes and penalties provided in the revenue laws will be imposed."

"ABSENT VOTER'S" BALLOT IS CAST IN THIS CITY

To live in Indiana and visit in California at election time yet cast one's ballot in Indiana, is the interesting experience of Mrs. Margaret A. Mountz, a resident of Garrett, Ind., at present visiting at the J. W. Coleberd home in this city. Indiana has an "absent voter" law, similar to the one the electors in California are to vote on November 2d. Under the provisions of this law Mrs. Mountz had a ballot sent her by the county clerk of De Kalb county, Indiana, marked her ballot secretly and returned it to the county clerk. On the envelope in which it was returned is an affidavit blank which the voter was required to fill out before a notary, setting forth that she was a voter of Garrett. The ballot was returned in the registered mail. So far as is known this is the first time an "absent voter's" ballot was ever cast in this city.

Mrs. Mountz is the mother of Mrs. J. W. Coleberd and is in South San Francisco to spend the winter.

OUR KIND OF MEN

VOTE FOR HARDING
COOLIDGE
SHORTRIDGE

WORK FOR HARDING
COOLIDGE
SHORTRIDGE

HARDING---COOLIDGE---SHORTRIDGE

The Next President.

As certain as anything can be, in this world, is the election of Senator Harding.

To readers of this newspaper, the many family groups to which it comes a regular welcome visitor, Senator Harding's face shines as that of a friend.

Senator Harding, your next President, is your kind of man. You see him, hear a few words, and you know it.

He was born in a small town, has lived there all his life, lives there now, and will live there again when he leaves the White House with his work for the country done.

He lives as you live, simply, in the old fashioned American way.

Millions of men, believing in this country, devoted to its government, SATISFIED with the UNITED STATES, believe that the United States is able to deal with its own problems, and settle its own questions free from outside assistance or interference.

Those millions of men are men of the same sort as Senator Harding.

What Kind of Man.

Harding is a big American in physical size, thanks to vigorous farming ancestors. He is a big American also in heart, in understanding, in sympathy and in simplicity.

You read his speeches and know that he does not imagine himself created to tell all the world what to do. He believes in, and he understands the American people, his friends, the citizens of his own little town, Marion, Ohio, and the dwellers in thousands of other towns like it.

After you have elected him, you will find in Senator Harding an earnest, conscientious, straight thinking servant of the people, not an autocrat, but a man respecting the traditions of American government, and the Constitution of the United States.

Senator Harding understands that the people will elect him to be President of the United States, not President of the whole world. He will know that he is employed by the PEOPLE of this country to look after the interests of THIS country.

Born on a farm, living all his life close to farmers, he knows and sympathizes with the problems of the farm. Living in the average American way, in the average American small town, he knows the problems of the average American. He understands the printers he employs, and he knows their trade and sets type as they do.

His Ambition.

Senator Harding has no ambition to be called a political superman, or RULER of America.

It is his ambition to be known as a good American, a faithful servant of those that trust him.

National politics are discussed this year less than at any election since the republic was founded. Why? Because men do not discuss, to any great extent, that which is DEFINITELY SETTLED.

But it is important that demonstration of the popular will should be of the most overwhelming kind. Therefore the good citizen will do what he can to increase the vote for Harding, should there be any doubtful votes within reach of his voice.

But if you do find one, show him or her this picture of the next President. And express in your own way the reasons that inspire you to approve and vote for him.

What is Senator Harding's outlook upon life? It is YOUR OWN.

The duty of the American, whether he be President or simple citizen, is not complicated in Mr. Harding's mind. He says:

"As I said at the outset, government is a very simple thing, government is only the regulation of our relationships to one another. The government's first task is the protection of the minority against autocracy, or the domination of the majority that sometimes forgets the rights of the minority."

"I am preaching the gospel of popular representative government in the United States, a government that does not know any class anywhere in all this Republic."

Women Voting.

Women especially have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that Senator Harding will be the next President and that the change in the national administration is to be complete.

Their sons are taken in war. Their husbands and fathers are taxed to pay for war. They spend the lonely hours of dreadful anxiety, while the son is away.

They, above all, are interested in having for President such a man as Senator Harding.

He does not believe that foreign powers should be allowed to conscript American boys for war beyond the seas.

He does not believe that a Foreign Council should send to America for men and money to settle wars not of our making.

Senator Harding does not believe that this country should be taxed to finance the ambitions or the land greed of foreign nations, and as he believes, so the earnest men and women of this country believe.

When you cast your vote for Senator Harding, you will vote for YOUR KIND OF MAN, the intelligent, straightforward, unpretentious American citizen. President Harding will be an American President, not an international President.

Like Senator Harding, both COOLIDGE and SHORTRIDGE came from the soil—the one from New England and the other from the West. Both have carried with them into public careers the homely virtues of life as they apply both to the individual and community contentment.

SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE, as farmer, blacksmith, teacher, lawyer has succeeded for the reason that no faults of training or thinking have kept him from the forward-looking path of the truly sincere and big American.

SHORTRIDGE knows California and her problems. He knows the Nation's problems in this time of war's reconstruction.

SHORTRIDGE will lose no time in applying himself in the Senate to these problems. He will support Harding and Harding will support Shortridge and California.

HARDING-COOLIDGE-SHORTRIDGE—Three men of today most like most other Americans. They are California's kind of men—they are America's kind of men.

We must have a complete change in the Administration at Washington!

Mrs. F. Hellman and son, who were planning to move to San Francisco, have decided to remain in Lomita Park and will reside on San Benito avenue.

Mrs. J. McCrea and daughter, Elizabeth Anne, and Mrs. G. Leddicot, former teachers at the Northbrae school, visited the San Bruno schools last Monday.

Frank Schiedeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Schiedeck of Fifth addition, has returned home after being overseas for the past two years. He is at present staying with his parents and intends to make his future home here.

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. R. Hunter entertained in her home the members and friends of the Episcopal church at a very pleasant affair given by the members of the guild. Re-

ST. BRUNO'S PARISH BAZAAR

Will close this evening in Cheetham's Hall, San Bruno, at midnight. A FULL-COURSE CHICKEN DINNER, prepared in two styles, Portuguese and American, will be served at 6 O'CLOCK. Price ONE DOLLAR; children under 14, FIFTY CENTS. Make reservations by applying to Mrs. Virginia Caetano, San Bruno, phone San Bruno 207-W. The Fagundes orchestra will "fill the night with music" from 8 to 12. Badges for gentlemen who desire to dance will be 50 cents. Ladies will not require badges. CHEETHAM'S HALL, TONIGHT!

Refreshments were served and cards were played.

Fred Schiedeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Schiedeck of Fifth addition, has enlisted in the United States navy and is now stationed at Goat Island. A short time ago he was severely injured in an accident, but has completely recovered.

Mrs. F. Helms entertained at her home in San Benito avenue last week in honor of Mrs. L. A. Moss. Among those present were Mesdames W. Eddy, W. Pengelly, R. Hodges, A. Spotswood, and H. Wankee of Lomita Park and a number of friends and relatives from San Francisco. The luncheon table was beautifully decorated and a pleasurable time was enjoyed by all.

The whist party and dance given by the Parent-Teacher Association in Lomita Park school house last Friday evening was well attended and was a most enjoyable affair. The affair was a financial as well as a social success, the proceeds to be placed in a fund to provide hot chocolate for the school children during the winter months. New playgrounds are being built at the Lomita Park school.

CITY TRUSTEES INSPECT U. S. S. CALIFORNIA

Last Saturday Mare Island navy yard acted as host to city officials of all the northern California cities on an inspection tour of the U. S. S. California, the latest of Uncle Sam's superdreadnaughts. At the invitation of Captain Cole, commandant of Mare Island navy yard, Mayor A. S. W. Grundy, Marshal William F. Wedell, representing the city, and George S. Hughes, secretary, and P. J. Sullivan, president, of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, as representatives of that organization, attended the tour and were much impressed by the immense size and equipment of the California. The U. S. destroyer Bruce met the various officials and conveyed them to the yard. All returned with the opinion that the U. S. S. California is the best fighting boat ever built by the United States.

EDGEMONT BOYS WIN FROM HILLSBOROUGH

Last Saturday morning the seventh and eighth grade boys of the Edgemont school played a return game with the boys of Hillsborough school, with a score of 12 to 3 in favor of the San Bruno team. The girls' teams of the two schools also played, with a score of 18 to 20 in favor of the San Bruno girls. Then Wednesday afternoon the fifth and sixth grade boys of Edgemont and Northbrae schools played a live match game, with a score of 5 to 6 in favor of the Northbrae boys.

TAX COLLECTOR HERE NOV. 8.

County Tax Collector A. McSweeney will be in San Bruno at the city hall November 8th to collect taxes from property owners of this city.

CITY TRUSTEES WILL FIGHT WATER CASE

City Attorney Instructed to Prepare Defense for City Marshal and Majority Board Members.

At the regular meeting of the San Bruno city trustees a superior court order was read instructing City Marshal William F. Wedell and Trustees A. S. W. Grundy, J. T. O'Connor, and Dr. F. H. Smith, as defendants representing the city, to show cause why a permanent restraining order should not be issued to prevent the city from making the proposed purchase of the water system from Robert Hyes Smith.

The plaintiffs in this action, Harry Palmer and Patrick Kane, both trustees of the present board, and August Lund, maintain that the action taken to date by the majority members of the board is unlawful and that the system is dilapidated, but that all protests have been overruled. Several other objections and complaints are raised.

This court order, it is stated, would also restrain the city from operating the present plant, to make collections for water supplied therefrom and making disbursements to carry on the operations. After a short discussion City Attorney John F. Davis was instructed by the board to take necessary steps on behalf of the city to bring the case to a successful ending and defeat the action undertaken by the plaintiffs.

City Recorder J. M. Custer reported the collection of $40 in fines for the month of September.

City Marshal William F. Wedell reported the collection of $55 for licenses during the month of September and the levying of $40 in fines.

City Treasurer Joseph A. Cunningham's report showed for the month of September receipts of $994.88 and expenditures of $2239.14 and a balance on hand September 30th of $10,033.18.

City Clerk Nettie A. Willits' report coincided with that of the city treasurer. City Clerk Willits reported that collections for water are coming in nicely.

Building permits were granted to Peter Kelley, Huntington Park, for an addition to his back porch; to Edward Zilke of Third addition, for a garage, and to J. M. Custer for a garage.

Several claims were presented and ordered paid.

A communication from the water commission, asking that it be permitted to change its meeting nights to the first and third Friday evenings of each month, was granted.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company in a letter stated that, in so far as power restrictions had been removed, all lights are now being turned on and off at the regular time.

Complaints were received from Mrs. Ida M. Cullar and A. Rich of San Bruno Park that cows, chickens, and other animals are allowed to run loose and are causing considerable damage. The complaints were referred to the city marshal, with instructions to call upon the owners of the offending animals, acquaint them with the provisions of the city ordinances, and have them appear before the city recorder to show cause why they should allow such a nuisance to exist.

A communication was received from Mrs. William A. Flynn, stating that the board of directors of the Recreation Center have decided to change the name of same to Community Center, with a board of directors composed of five adults and three members of the young people's club, the Center Club, to govern same, which is to be open to the public. A financial report covering the period between April, 1919, and October 27, 1920, showed total receipts of $1279.05 and total disbursements of $1071.37, leaving a cash balance of $207.68. The total assets of the organization brings this amount to $610.24. At the present time a site for tennis courts has been leveled and graveled.

Fire and Light Commissioner Patrick Kane submitted a written report as requested at the last meeting. This report recommended several changes in the existing fire ordinance, an addition to the present firehouse, and that the proposal to put another tank on the present fire truck be denied. The report also stated that Frank Mazzara had been appointed fire chief. Permission was granted to the fire commission to make needed repairs on the fire truck and to purchase necessary supplies.

City Attorney John F. Davis reported that as far as he had been able to learn the city will have to bear the cost of installation of signals at Angus avenue crossing, which at the present time appear to be in excess of $700. Further information, he stated, would be forthcoming at the next meeting.

City Engineer George A. Kneese reported he had conferred with W. B. Lawrence, superintendent of the Millbrae plant of the Spring Valley Water Company, and that Mr. Lawrence stated the company would not be willing to make a connection with its main on the state highway as proposed by the city, but that such connection could be made on the main running along San Mateo avenue. The matter was referred to the water commission.

Commissioner of Public Works J. T. O'Connor was granted permission to pay as high as $5 per day for competent men, at his discretion.

City Clerk Nettie A. Willits was selected by the board to represent the city with Mayor Grundy at the convention of the California League of Municipalities at Chico, November 8th-11th. Miss Willits was also granted a vacation of two weeks with pay.

Mr. Balducci of Third addition was granted permission to finish work on a house which he started some two years ago, providing same complies with all existing ordinances.

City Marshal Wedell was instructed to bring Mr. Gorman, owner of a shack in Fourth addition, before the recorder's court for violating the building ordinances.

The city clerk was instructed to write to A. Hensley, asking for definite information as to what he intends to do pertaining to his interests in the city relative to payment of overdue assessments. This matter has been hanging fire for some time.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS PARTY.

The Epworth League gave its annual Halloween party last Friday night. Everybody was in costume. Games were played and refreshments were served and a good time was enjoyed by all who attended.

SCHOOL CAFETERIA TO OPEN NEXT TUESDAY

The Parent-Teacher Association has announced that the cafeteria for Edgemont school will be opened Tuesday, November 2d. A warm lunch will be served to the school children for 10 cents. The association plans to furnish these meals at cost.

A special meeting of the association will be held at the Edgemont school Tuesday afternoon, November 2d, at 2:30 o'clock. Those interested in the cafeteria are especially requested to attend. Everybody is welcome.

WATER SYSTEM FIGHT TAKEN TO SUPERIOR COURT

Harry Palmer, Patrick Kane, members of the board of trustees of this city, and August Lund have applied to the superior court for an injunction to permanently restrain the city of San Bruno from purchasing, operating, or controlling the proposed water system. William F. Wedell, tax collector, and A. S. W. Grundy, J. T. O'Connor, and Dr. F. H. Smith, city trustees, are named as defendants to represent the city in this action, the hearing of which has been set for Thursday, November 4th, at Redwood City. Attorney A. P. Black is representing the plaintiffs and City Attorney J. F. Davis will represent the city's interests in the case.

Great local interest attaches to this case as the residents of San Bruno and its environs are sharply divided over the proposition for the city to buy and operate its own water system.

HOLY ANGELS' BENEFIT AT SUNDAY'S COURSING

A monster coursing field day has been arranged by Jack Dennis, secretary of the San Mateo County Coursing Club, for next Sunday, October 31st, at the Lombardi ranch, San Bruno. The receipts of the day will be turned over to Holy Angels' parish of Colma. It will be a banner day and twenty-four of the best dogs in California will run during the day.

The event will be a grand free-for-all stake, preliminary for the open range stake meet at Merced next month. Judge Bernard J. Flood, the well-known jurist, will slip the first two dogs entered for the event. Rev. M. J. Concannon, pastor of Holy Angels' parish, is looking forward to a large attendance from surrounding towns.

Mrs. Ed Foppiano of San Francisco gave birth to a fine baby girl on Thursday, October 21st. Mrs. Foppiano was Miss Flora Atkinson, the eldest daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Atkinson.

William E. Williams of Pasadena is visiting at the home of his son, E. C. Williams. Williams, who is an army veteran, enjoyed meeting Colma's ex-soldiers, and intends staying here for a few months.

El Carmelo Parlo, No. 181, N. D. G. W., of Colma has announced that on the first Wednesday of each month it will hold a social after its meetings, which are held at Eagles' Hall, Daly City. All members are asked to be present.

ANTONE STURLA HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

The Sturla home on Market street was the scene of a happy gathering at a supper party which was given on Wednesday evening last in honor of Antone Sturla's birthday. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Antone Sturla, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Horkey, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Schmidt, Mrs. S. A. Potter, Mrs. Albert Sturla, Frank Sturla, and Mrs. J. Goss.

"BY HECK" DANCE ATTRACTING ATTENTION

The By Heck dance to be given for the benefit of the homeless children of El Carmelo Parlo, No. 181, N. D. G. W., of Colma, Saturday evening in the Daly City auditorium, is attracting much attention among the younger people of this region. Indications point to a large crowd at the affair.

ENTERTAIN AUSTRALIAN COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Clotti, who arrived two weeks ago on the Ventura from Sydney, Australia, were the guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Leon Fellmann Sr. at her home on Annie street on Sunday last. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fellmann Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Milton Clotti, and Leon Fellmann Jr.

ARMANINOS' OLD BUILDING NOW BEING REMODELED

The Armanino building on the fork of Rainer street and San Pedro avenue is being remodeled on the inside and outside. Louis Nava, the popular local butcher, will open a first-class butcher shop at the corner of the building, which has been occupied as a saloon for the past fifteen years. When the repairing is completed the building will harmonize with the bank, Ford agency, the new hardware and drug store, all of which are closely located.

A MESSAGE FOR YOU.

It won't do you a bit of harm to look at the goods advertised in this paper. Merchants can not afford to pay printing bills in order to advertise something that won't "stack up" on inspection. That is not the home way. Every ad in this paper contains information of value to some person. Perhaps you are that person—but you can't tell without reading the ads.

TELL IT TO THE EDITOR.

Every newspaper editor is desirous of printing all of the legitimate news of his subscription field. That is the object of his paper.

But unfortunately an editor is partly human—he at least is moulded in human form. He does not possess a dozen pair of hands, or legs, or eyes, or ears for the collection of this vast fund of information.

That is why the editor urges you to tell him what you know—to keep him informed of the doings of yourself and family, of your friends, or of the community in general.

It is the only way to make a good paper—and a good paper is one of the prime requisites to a good community in which to live and do business.

Tell it to the editor.
He'll tell others—if it is tellable.

LET THE WOMEN DO IT.

In this country there are large numbers of men who are too lazy or indifferent to go to the polls and vote—to pay the debt they owe to their country. They think they are good citizens, but many other people think they are not.

Women have always forged to the front in all good work, and unquestionably they will take up their newly acquired burdens of citizenship as rapidly as they can adjust themselves to their new station in political life. Will they lead in the voting of the future? Will they put the stay-at-home man to shame?

We have faith in the willingness of all good women to do that which is for the best. Voting is a sacred duty. Women are not shirkers. Men sometimes are.

MAKING OR BREAKING.

Bringing up children is a problem to all parents. The character of a child is moulded principally in its younger years, and it seldom leaves the pathway it has been trodding in those days. It is made or broken by its parents.

Some parents are always kind to their children, but firm, insisting upon implicit obedience. The world is full of such children, now grown to manhood, and they are dominating the really important affairs of the world.

Other parents are weak and vacillating. They coax, wheedle, storm, rave, and threaten—but never punish. They are not obeyed, and are often defied. The world is also peopled with these children, now men. Much of the peopling is within the four walls of a jail or a penitentiary.

It is a problem indeed, but one which many parents fail to solve until too late.

The children do it for them—in their own way.

We often wonder what will really happen when the world comes to an end, but we are so averse to being fussed up that we have decided not to await the outcome.

The last census was a difficult one to take. Most of the population was counted twice—at home, and then again at Los Angeles, Newport, or Palm Beach.

Just sliding through life is a dangerous practice, and often painful. The pathway is strewn with obstacles and pitfalls, and sometimes with slivers.

When your friends begin to tactfully avoid you, stop and think. How many times have you inflicted your troubles upon them of late?

The laws of this country were made to be enforced against every one but you. But don't mention it. We knew you'd agree with us.

The old practice of going about with a chip on one's shoulder has about died out. Too much danger of profiteers getting the chips.

When a wife wears the family pants she is at least considerate in one respect. She doesn't parade them before the public.

We always wish our friends a merry Christmas in time to get a few in return before it is too late. Here's yours.

Woman came into politics with a whoop, but let's hope she doesn't go out with a scream.

Newspaper dispatches tell us that "coal is in sight." But that's a long way from being in the furnace.

When we mortals reach the jumping off point of life we immediately decide that it is not time to jump.

Some men are so pure of mind and heart they can find nothing to talk about but the faults of others.

Of course, dead men tell no tales. Live ones need no aid from the dead in this pleasing occupation.

Many a man makes a d. f. of himself when trying to be smart, but only the other fellows know it.

The fellow who attempts to make something out of nothing sometimes succeeds—to his cost.

The wise man seldom fails to recognize the truth, but only a fool blurts it out at all times.

"Men may vote for this office." Some day we may come to that!

ELBOWING THE GREAT

A certain House employee, who makes very little money, has just returned from a buzz around the Florida health resorts. Other employees, at a loss to understand why he should spend his money in such riotous living, asked him to explain.

"Well," he said, "I like the association of big men."
"What do you mean association?" Bill Kenny, one of the doorkeepers, asked.

"Well," he replied, "one day Boles Penrose's automobile almost ran over me and another day, when I was in swimming, I kicked Mayor Hylan on the ankle."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HIS FIRST MILLION

A crabby millionaire, as he got out of his limousine, was approached by a newsboy. "No, I don't want a paper. Get out!" he snarled. "Well, keep your shirt on, boss," replied the newsboy. "The only difference between you an' me is that you are making your second million and I'm still working on my first."—Exchange.

SUMMER EPISODE

"Then you won't let me hug you?"
"No."
"But I hugged you while we were dancing in the ballroom."
"That's different."
"Well, what shall we do?"
"Go back to the ballroom," the girl suggested.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

WHEW!

"My wife is suffering from shell-shock."
"Impossible!"
"Not at all. At breakfast today she broke an egg that had seen better days."—Buffalo Express.

HIS ROMANCE

"Why does your hired man spend so much time standing by the railroad tracks?"
"Hoping for history to repeat."
"Eh?"
"That is the exact spot he was standing in when a chorus girl on a train waved her hand to him last summer."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

VEGETABLES IN COMBINATION GOOD MEAT DISH SUBSTITUTE

A large variety of "roasts" may be made by combining legumes, either beans, cowpeas, lentils, or peas with cheese of various kinds. Bread crumbs may be added for thickening. Beans are usually mashed, but peas or small Lima beans may be combined whole with bread crumbs and grated cheese, and enough of the liquor in which the vegetables have been cooked may be added to get the right consistency. Form into a roll and bake in the same way as a meat roll. Instead of beans or peas, chopped spinach, beet tops, or head lettuce may be used. Home-made cottage cheese, and the soft cream cheese of commerce, standard or English dairy cheese is also much liked for making such dishes to use in place of meat. The following recipe is recommended by food specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture:

Boston Roast

1 pound can of kidney beans or equivalent quantity of cooked beans.
½ pound of grated cheese.
Bread crumbs.
Salt.

Mash the cooked beans or put them through a meat grinder. Add the cheese and sufficient bread crumbs to make the mixture stiff enough to be formed into a roll. Bake in a moderate oven, basting occasionally with butter and water. Serve with tomato sauce. This dish may be flavored with onions, chopped and cooked in butter and water.

HOME-MADE DRESS FORM FOR THE HOME DRESSMAKER

Every woman who makes garments for herself longs for a dress form, if she does not already possess one, and, if she does, she regards it as one of the most necessary pieces of sewing equipment that she has. It is very difficult to fit oneself. When the arms are moved to change a pin or a basting which needs adjusting, the fit of the whole garment is changed, and the fitter does not know where the right place is for the seam or the trimming. A dress form or Betty, as it is often called, does away with this difficulty, but because of the expense of the commercial ones few women in the past have felt they could afford to own one.

Garment-making clubs are among the most popular of the many organized by the home demonstration agents who are sent out by the United States Department of Agriculture, and their members are learning easier and better ways of dressmaking. The extension workers soon discovered that the farm woman who attempts to do part or all of her own sewing—and the majority of them do—encounters the most difficulty in fitting the garments and adjusting the trimming. What she needs is a dress form, and since dress forms are beyond the means of the larger number, the home demonstration agents had to set their wits to work and invent a home-made substitute.

Kinds of Dress Forms

Today thousands of these home-made dress forms are in use in the rural and small town homes of this country. In Merrimac county, N. H., seventeen communities have been organized, or have organized themselves, for the purpose of making dress forms. This means that the majority of women in that county will have one of these conveniences.

At present four kinds of dress forms are being used. The first is the most expensive, and is made with a commercial dress form and a lining to fit all the lines of the wearer's figure. The lining is adjusted over the dress form, and a stuffing is put in between the lining and the form until the lining is tightly filled.

Another variety is made by stuffing a tight-fitting lining with excelsior, cotton, or some like substance. This is not as satisfactory as it might be, for great care must be exercised to give the dress form the right lines and it loses its shape more or less rapidly.

A third method is to cover a tight-fitting lining, while it is on its owner, with plaster of Paris; this is allowed to harden, and the whole is then carefully removed. The lining should have an opening down the front. Stuffing is then put in until it is firm.

The most satisfactory home-made Betties, however, are made with gummed paper. This variety costs less than a dollar, and is said to give as good satisfaction as one which brings $20 across a counter. They are made by pasting two thicknesses of gummed manilla sealing paper on a tight-fitting undervert while on the prospective owner's figure. When the gum has dried, the jacket is removed by slitting down the back and front. These halves are then put together again with gummed paper. The general effect is that of a heavy papier-mache form. One of the best features of a home-made Betty is that it is an exact duplication of the woman's own form.

The dress form means a real saving in money as well as in time and patience to every woman, whether she is making new clothes or making over old ones.

MUTTON AND TOMATO PIE.

An excellent way to use cold mutton is to bake it with tomatoes, using alternate layers of tomatoes and meat. The Home Economics Experts of the United States Department of Agriculture recommend this. A tomato sauce may be used, or the following method may be employed: Place in a baking dish a layer of fresh tomatoes or of cooked tomatoes which have been either drained or reduced in volume by boiling. Add a layer of meat, dredge with flour, salt and pepper, and add small bits of butter until the materials are used, arranging to have a layer of tomatoes on top. Cover this with a layer of buttered bread crumbs or cracker crumbs and bake until the crumbs are brown. In following this method use tomato, butter and flour in the correct proportions for tomato sauce, i. e., two level tablespoons each of butter and flour for each cup of tomatoes.

LADIES' GUILD ARRANGE BAZAAR AT GUILD HALL

Gay, clever posters are displayed about town announcing the "Bazaar, Auction Dance" to be given by the women of Grace Guild Hallowsen, next Saturday. The sale of fancy articles will begin at Fraternal Hall at 2 o'clock and the auction and dance with refreshments will be from 8 to 12 in the evening. Grace Guild is a new organization, composed of women interested in the Episcopal church in this city. It was formed last spring. They are working to remove the debt on the church property as well as to make some improvements.

QUESTIONS AND PROPOSITIONS SUBMITTED TO VOTE OF ELECTORS

1	ALIEN LAND LAW. Initiative act. Designed primarily to prohibit Orientals from controlling our farming lands and food production. The alien land law of 1913 prohibited ownership or lease beyond three years of California agricultural land by aliens ineligible to citizenship, but this law has been successfully evaded. Amendment No. 1 will strengthen the act of 1913 and make it effective. Vote Yes.	YES	X
2	PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT ACT. Submitted to voters by referendum. This is not a prohibition measure and if you vote no you are not voting against prohibition. It will not necessitate the creation of a second set of prohibition officers as its opponents falsely state, but will make all peace officers responsible for the enforcement of the law as they should be. This measure merely creates 20,000 officers of law and order so far as the enforcement of prohibition in California goes where there are but 29 now. If the "wets" do not like prohibition they should bring about the repeal of the prohibition law, not seek to break the law. Every good citizen and lover of law and order will vote Yes.	YES	X
3	SALARIES OF JUSTICES. Initiative measure. Proposes to increase the salaries of the State Supreme Court Justices from $6000 to $10,000 a year and of Justices of the Appellate Court from $7000 to $9000 a year. These two courts are the highest in the State. We must have judges of the highest possible caliber. The most effective way to secure the services of such men is to pay attractive salaries. Vote Yes.	YES	X
4	INITIATIVE. Initiative measure. It has been entirely too easy to circulate petitions and get enough signatures to secure the operation of the initiative. Eight per cent of the votes cast at last gubernatorial election is all that has been required. This amendment would make twenty-five per cent necessary. One purpose of the measure is to prevent the continual recurrence of the pernicious Single Tax measure voted down again and again by the people of this state. Vote Yes.	YES	X
5	CHIROPRACTIC. Initiative act. Creates Board of Chiropractic Examiners appointed by Governor. There is at present a state board of medical examiners to examine the qualifications and knowledge of the human body possessed by every applicant to practice in the state. Chiropractors can secure licenses from this board if competent, therefore the measure is unnecessary. Vote No.	YES
6	PROHIBITING COMPULSORY VACCINATION. Vaccination is not at present compulsory in our schools, therefore this measure is unnecessary. It is designed to do away entirely with vaccination, which has proven its efficacy in millions of cases the world over for many years. It is a vicious measure fostered by quack doctors. For the protection of not only our children but of our citizens as a whole vote No.	YES
7	PROHIBITING VIVISECTION. Initiative act. Another vicious measure which, if it carries, will materially cripple the medical science which has made marvelous discoveries through animal experimentation. Animals are NOT tortured as the proponents of this proposition state, but are worked upon under anaesthetics and, therefore, without pain to them. In the name of common sense and better health for all vote No.	YES
8	POISON ACT. Submitted to electors by referendum. A law passed by the last legislature. A good measure and should be supported. It is aimed to restrict the use of narcotics, and hypodermic needles to the medical profession. This referendum is placed on the ballot through the efforts of "drugless" practitioners and quacks who wish to defeat the measure seemingly that they may have access to the dangerous articles named. Vote for this measure and keep narcotics, drugs, etc., where they belong. Vote Yes.	YES	X
9	HIGHWAY BONDS. Creates State Highway Finance Board to serve without compensation and empowers it to raise the rate of interest on highway bonds. There is some well-founded opposition to this measure, but this newspaper believes the measure necessary if the good roads movement is to go on. Vote Yes.	YES	X
10	CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. Provides for calling of convention to frame a new constitution. This seems unnecessary and furthermore, because of present upset and unstable business conditions following the war, it might be dangerous. Vote No.	YES
11	ALIEN POLL TAX. Calls for an annual poll tax on aliens, to be paid into school funds in county where collected. It is not to be levied on citizens either native or foreign-born, being designed merely to cause those who are not citizens, many of whom enjoy the benefits of living under this enlightened government without paying any taxes, to help defray governmental expenses and to help support our schools. Vote Yes.	YES	X
12	STATE UNIVERSITY TAX. Designed to provide more money for necessary school and state university expenses and to have the state pay a larger share of these expenses than it is doing at present. If the great work now being carried on by the state university is to continue, more funds must be provided. Vote Yes.	YES	X
13	COMMUNITY PROPERTY. Act submitted to electors by referendum. The spirit and theory of this measure is good, to give the wife greater rights in community property. The amendment is loosely and carelessly drawn, however, and it is the consensus of opinion of attorneys, bankers, and business men competent to judge, that it would lead to endless litigation and would work hardships to the very person it is designed to protect—the wife. For this reason this newspaper advises its readers to vote No.	YES
14	INSURANCE ACT. A referendum act prohibiting any corporation controlled by any bank from acting as general agent or department manager of any insurance company. It is felt the right of a bank to engage either directly or indirectly in the insurance business is inadvisable. Vote Yes.	YES
15	IRRIGATION DISTRICT ACT. Designed to make it easier for the formation of irrigation districts. This is not of vital interest to residents of this region, but as this newspaper feels it is a progressive measure the recommendation is that you vote Yes.	YES	X
16	SCHOOL SYSTEM. Would add kindergartens to the public school system, require additional revenues for school funds, and create state high school fund. The object is to assist small rural school districts, many of which are now closed for lack of funds. For the sake of the school system vote Yes.	YES	X
17	ABSENT VOTERS. Would permit voters who would be absent from home at election time to vote prior to that date. The spirit of the measure is good, but it would open the way to endless and vicious election frauds. Vote No.	YES
18	EXEMPTING ORPHANAGES FROM TAXATION. Due to the fact that a large proportion of such orphanages are conducted for gain and furthermore that such a measure might be used later as an opening wedge to further extend the institutions exempt from taxation, our recommendation is that you vote No.	YES
19	STATE AID TO INSTITUTIONS. Providing for state aid to institutions conducted for the support and maintenance of the children of a father who is incapacitated for work. For the reason that there is no provision as to what shall constitute permanent physical disability, or what is meant by gainful occupation, and might include the children of a father suffering from any disease of any character, it is recommended that the vote be No.	YES
20	LAND VALUES TAXATION. Same old Single Tax proposition that has appeared on the ballot in California for four consecutive times and been voted down each time. Would place all taxes on land alone and levy as great a tax on your vacant lot or the lot your house stands on as the land on which a great office building is erected. Wrong in principle and would be revolutionary in its workings. By all means vote No.	YES

LOOKING A PLAIN SITUATION
SQUABE IN THE FACE

(By Annie Laurie.)

Police Judge Owens please step to the platform and get a Distinguished Service Medal pinned to your coat.

Talk about the Croix de Guerre—if ever a man went over the top in the face of an age-long and bitterly vindictive enemy you have done that very thing, and done it right here in San Francisco, this very week of this very month of this very year.

You have looked a perfectly plain situation square in its plain, hideously revolting face—instead of turning your head away and pretending that you didn't see it. Or, if you did see it, you didn't know what it meant.

When you announced in open court the other day that hereafter men arrested in vice raids are to be held for examination, just as the women arrested in such raids are held, you turned the great white light of everyday common sense upon an outrageous and absolutely ridiculous situation.

What if two lepers were found walking down the gangplank of some transpacific steamer, when the ship docked here in San Francisco?

Would the health authorities arrest the woman leper, and let the man go free? Not if any man or woman who can read and write knew about it. No, thank you.

Leprosy is just as hard to bear, just as hideous an affliction whether it is brought into a country or into a community or into a family by a man or by a woman.

We're not talking morals or reform—we're not even talking "double standards" or "single standards." We're just talking plain facts. And it's about time we did. Of all the stupid, blind, deaf and dumb, feeble-minded things in human experience, this ridiculous way of shutting up one source of infection and letting the other step out absolutely free to endanger the health of the whole community, is and has been the most appalling incredible.

And the worst of it is that they set loose the more dangerous one of the two. Women of that class do not as a rule go home to innocent children and decent, self-respecting husbands. Men caught in such raids do sometimes go home to innocent children and honest, helpless trusting wives.

I don't care whether Judge Owens believes in the "double standard" or the "single standard." It does not worry me in the least to wonder whether he is interested in the cubists or in the new music or in temperamental dancing. I don't care whether he likes roast beef rare or well done, and I don't think it is my affair to care. But I do care when he has the courage and the common sense to say from the bench something which should have been said from the bench and shouted from the house tops and insisted upon at every Board of Health meeting since there has been such a thing as a Board of Health in existence on earth.

More power to you, Judge Owens. You're a Daniel come to judgment.—Adv.

CHIROPRACTORS RECEIVE
ENDORSEMENT OF LABOR

One of the pleasing incidents in connection with the coming election is the fact that the Chiropractic bill, No. 5, has been endorsed by both the Central Labor Council and the Building Trades Council of San Francisco.

The support of these two great labor organizations is doubly appreciated by the Chiropractors in view of the abuse, misrepresentation and vast sums of money being expended by the medical men to defeat the bill.

Their endorsement goes to show that the laboring man wants to be as free to select his method of healing and of keeping well as he does to worship where and how he pleases.—Adv.

MOVIE STARS

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS.

(© 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

There was a brilliant smile playing about Myra's lips as she turned away from the telephone. It was a smile famous throughout many lands, for Myra was one of those stars that twinkled the length and breadth of filmland.

At the other end of the wire, young Lord Gerald Rollins turned away with a heavy sigh. He had spoken the words that would permit an entire movie company to encamp in his wonderful ancestral home during the entire summer months. But Lord Gerald had been badly done during the war and money was scarce in his tweed pockets.

England had never looked more beautiful nor the gardens of Hill Hall more enchanting when the large company, bag and baggage, drew up under the vast gates and brought huge touring cars to a stop.

Lord Gerald was out on the porch to watch the arrival. It was all so new to him that he felt himself taking a huge interest in the proceedings.

Then, out of a great black touring car stepped Myra. Lord Gerald caught a swift breath. The little American movie star was exquisite to a degree quite disconcerting. She came up to him with frankly curious eyes.

"You are Lord Rollins, aren't you?" she questioned, while her wide, intelligent eyes appraised and passed splendid judgment on him. "We are so glad to get here and are all weary—every one of us," including her entire company in a glance; "but your estate is wonderful—quite beyond my meager power of expression."

"You will appreciate a cup of tea?" Lord Gerald suggested, and led the way into the great hall, with its fine collection of rare old paintings; "then Perkins will show you your rooms."

"Lord Rollins," she said, with characteristic frankness, "if I could find a leading man like you for my hero I would pay him a thousand dollars a week. You are the living image of the lover in my story—at least the very type I want."

He scarcely recognized his own voice nor his own sudden leap into a world hitherto unknown.

"Topping salary! I say, Miss Dawson, would I be an awful dub at acting?"

"Lord Rollins!" cried Myra swiftly, "if you would consent to act with me in a series of five pictures, and perhaps more, I will make the salary three thousand a week. I shall want to advertise," she added. "Your name will be worth as much as your—manner," she finished with her first touch of shyness.

"The die is cast," laughed Lord Rollins boyishly, and put out a too white hand—the war had left him a bit delicate.

The tea cart arrived, well laden with thin bread and butter, Devonshire cream and strawberries. The situation straightway became normal, for every one drifted in from various doorways, famished for tea.

Lord Rollins never forgot that first tea party when, under his ancestral roof, the entire Myra Dawson film company partook of his hospitality.

Myra was constantly on the alert for scenes, and the conversation jumped at random from English springtime to American skyscrapers, but ever and anon Lord Rollins found that his eyes were meeting the pair of brilliant ones belonging to Myra.

"Topping summer this will be," he found himself thinking, and for the first time since a bursting shell had flung him face downward on the battlefield Lord Rollins felt the warm blood dancing through his body with the sheer joy of being alive.

He proved neither a wonderful nor yet a too bad movie actor. His movements when under the scrutiny of Myra were a bit stilted, but she was most encouraging and splendidly helpful. Working with her was a pleasure far beyond any Lord Rollins had experienced. The novelty, the excitement and the occasional delightful love scenes through which he acted with Myra all helped to lead him back to the oldtime health and strength.

It was during the third reel of their second play, when, as per direction, he was pressing a smothering kiss on the fair heroine's left cheek, that Lord Rollins spoke not reel but real love words.

"I love you, Myra," he said, while the camera man kept winding; "I have never loved anyone before—you will marry me—dear?"

"I love you, too," Myra told him softly, and her cheek turned more closely to the hero's, "but I cannot be the wife of an English lord. I am of very common birth, dear. My people worked for a living."

The entire company seemed suddenly to have drifted in and taken up front-row positions, as if scenting romance spelled with a large R.

"Dear heart," the young lord continued, unconscious of the interest of the audience, "you are talking utter nonsense—I love you—love you."

The crowd of players waited breathlessly.

Myra turned then and looked tenderly into Lord Rollins' pleading eyes.

"We will continue our partnership, then, dear," she made answer.

The camera men stopped in the nick of time. The final love kiss was not nearly due in the reel, but apparently this one was.

It was perhaps the most notable wedding in filmland, and assuredly one of the happiest.

HERSMAN'S TARIFF STAND; BEAN MEN'S ENDORSEMENT

C. Kelley Hardenbrook of Lompoc and C. L. Preisker of Santa Maria have made public copies of letters they wrote last June to Congressman Hugh S. Hersman, congratulating him on the splendid work he had done in behalf of the bean growers of this district. At the same time they called attention to a tribute to Congressman Hersman's untiring efforts in behalf of a bean tariff prepared and written by Aaron Sairo, a prominent attorney of San Francisco, who represented the California bean growers at Washington. Mr. Sapiro's eulogy of Congressman Hersman's work was published in the California Bean Growers' Journal last December.

Both Mr. Hardenbrook and Mr. Preisker were in Washington with Attorney Sapiro in the interests of the bean growers. They worked with Congressman Hersman in presenting the bean situation to the ways and means committee of the house. In the letters given for publication today they are frank in their expressions of thanks to Congressman Hersman for his efforts in securing a favorable report for a two-cent tariff on beans from the ways and means committee and assure him that the bean growers of this district are not unappreciative of the untiring efforts he has put forth in their behalf.

Mr. Hardenbrook's letter follows:

C. Kelley Hardenbrook,
Attorney at Law,
Lompoc, Calif.

"Hon. Hugh S. Hersman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.—Dear Mr. Hersman: Thank you for your telegram announcing that the ways and means committee has reported out the bill providing a two-cent tariff on beans, with the recommendation that it do pass.

"I wish at this time to express my sincere appreciation of your untiring and intelligent efforts on behalf of this bill. I think the farmers and business men of this district now realize that the great bean industry of California can be saved only through the enactment by congress of legislation providing an adequate protective import duty on foreign-grown beans, and they will therefore give to you the credit you deserve for your work in that behalf.

"As a result of my observations during the five weeks I spent at Washington last autumn, as one of the representatives of the California bean growers, I am able to say that you have not neglected one step which might promote the interests of your district. I am sure both Mr. Preisker and Mr. Sapiro will agree with me when I say the favorable report on this bill is due in very large part to your exceedingly valuable work with Chairman Fordney and the other members of the ways and means committee.

"I think the district is fortunate in having as its member in congress a man who has an intelligent appreciation of problems of the farmer, and who is an all-the-year-round friend of agriculture, as evidenced by your work on the bean tariff bill, the Hersman-Capper bill, and other measures designed to make of farming the profitable enterprise it ought to be.

"Yours very sincerely,
"C. KELLEY HARDENBROOK,
"Lompoc, June 11, 1920."

"Hon. Hugh S. Hersman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.—Dear Mr. Hersman: Mr. Hardenbrook just informed me that you had wired that the two-cent tariff bill had been reported favorably to the house of representatives by the ways and means committee. It is very pleasing news, and it must have been very gratifying to you that you have succeeded to this extent when it seemed that you were up against an impossibility. You should not feel disappointed in not getting your four-cent per pound substitution, as that was out of the question this session.

"The bean growers of your district surely owe you a vote of thanks for this, as well as for your splendid efforts for other farmers' measures.

"Again, let me thank you for the many courtesies extended our bean tariff committee during the month we spent in Washington last fall, when we made your office our headquarters.

"Sincerely yours,

"C. L. PREISKER,

"Santa Maria, June 12, 1920."

Attorney Sapiro's Commendation.

Attorney Sapiro's article first recounts the preliminaries that led up to the fight made by the California bean growers before the house of representatives. He then tells of the arrival of himself with Messrs. Hardenbrook and Preisker at Washington, and concludes with an expression of appreciation for the splendid work done by Congressman Hersman. His article in part follows:

"The committee then proceeded to Washington and sought counsel from California representatives as to the best methods of procedure. Throughout the entire work, your committee was guided by Congressman Julius Kahn of San Francisco and Congressman Hugh Hersman of Gilroy. The other representatives of California in congress, particularly Mr. Barber of Fresno and Mr. Osborn of Los Angeles, were very helpful. There is, however, a definite obligation to Congressman Kahn and Hersman for the shrewd and far-sighted guidance of the former and for the untiring energy and intelligent, persistent work of Hersman throughout every detail of the campaign. Congressman Kahn called a meeting of the California delegation, and had the matter generally presented to them. He secured the agreement of the delegation as a whole to support the efforts of the tariff committee."—Advt.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS PARTY PROVES VERY SUCCESSFUL

The "birthday party" given at Fraternal Hall last Friday night by the girls of Mrs. A. A. Whitten's Sunday school class was a decided success from every standpoint. There was a large gathering, and the class made enough money to double the amount of its pledge of $60 toward the Methodist church building fund.

One of the features of the evening's program was a flag drill given by the children of the third and fourth grades of the grammar school, who have been organized into a "health club" by the school nurse, Miss Cora Rackle. Miss Emma Johnson and Miss Myrtle Kiessling assisted in the drilling of the children, and the way they went through their evolutions showed the careful work their instructors had given.

Another feature that gave much pleasure to the audience was the instrumental numbers given by a trio consisting of Gordon Whitehead, Miss Rose Van Valin, and Miss Gladys Morris. Mr. Whitehead also rendered a piano solo, which evoked much applause.

KATIE TERRAGNO WINS TICKETS TO THE MOVIES

Katie Terragno, salesgirl at Mr. Guddi's popular dry goods store, The Hub, was the fortunate winner of the tickets to the Royal Theater last week by finding the missing letter in an Enterprise advertisement. Miss Terragno discovered the letter "I" missing from the word protection in Mr. Arndt's bid advertisement. Many others discovered it, too, but Katie was the first to make it known at this office. There was another word with a letter gone, too, the word exactly in the advertisement of the Rowe School. Many found this one, too, but were not quick enough to get the tickets. In today's Enterprise there are two misspelled words in one ad. We are going to give two additional tickets to the first person finding the words and bringing the ad to this office. There is also the usual letter missing, which will win two tickets, so there is a chance for four tickets this week. Who will get them?

L. E. ADAMS WILL TALK ON SCHOOL AMENDMENTS

Opponents of amendment No. 12 claim that it will take the state university from the control of the legislature and put it entirely in the hands of the regents. This question will be discussed at Grace Forum on Sunday evening, also No. 16, a measure to relieve the county expense on schools by putting a larger share on the state. Meeting opens at 8 o'clock. Mr. Adams, the superintendent of South San Francisco's schools, will lead the discussion.
